10/1/17	Report from Royal British Legion The Trust To received and NOTED a report from the Royal British Legion

	which highlighted: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Joy Blake has suggested that although it was agreed that the remembrance exhibition was bi-annual it be increased to annually. 2017 is the centenary for the Battle of Ypres and Passchendaele and should be commemorated. It would be ideal to set up a working party and involve the Community College as they take a group of students to the war graves each year. It was AGREED that an exhibition should be held in 2017. It was PROPOSED that a working party should be set up and that Adele Vincent would be the Town Council officer to co-ordinate meetings. This was RESOLVED. Thanks were noted to the Town Council for a grant to use the Corn Exchange free of charge for the Festival of Remembrance 2017. The Clerk was asked to confirm if this included rehearsal dates. £20,894 had been collected during the 2016 Poppy Appeal
